

Word Weaving for Everyday People
explore
TWISTED HISTORIES!

Saturday, October 10, 2026
11:30AM - 3:30PM
21 Weeks Road, Queensbury, NY 12804
$50.00*

ALL PEOPLE ARE WELCOMED TO WORD WEAVERS WRITING WORKSHOPS

If the workshop fee* is an issue, please, contact Suzanne.

For registration and payment info, email: kataahdin@gmail.com

What twists & turns have led you here & there in your life? Explore how the unexpected, or expected, changes embellish one's life story. How can we straighten out or untangle thematic twists & turns? All genres and skill levels are welcome to our AWA and Expressive Arts enriched writing sessions. Writing prompts to take home after the workshop are provided, along with refreshments. AWA skills are reviewed to ensure a safe space while creating new work and reviewing older work. Please RSVP to ensure proper amounts of writing materials, prompts and food.

2025 Pushcart Prize nominee, Suzanne S. Rancourt, Abenaki/Huron, Quebecois, Scottish descent, USMC and Army Veteran: author of NU Press & Native Writers' Circle of the Americas First Book Award, Billboard in the Clouds; 2023 Poetry of Modern Conflict Award winner murmurs at the gate, Unsolicited Press 2019; Old Stones, New Roads MSR Pub.2021, Autumn House Press 2020 finalist; Songs of Archilochus, Unsolicited Press, 2023. Suzanne is a multimodal EXAT, Drug & Alcohol Counselor (CASAC-P) w/ degrees in psych., writing, a Nature Culture's Writing the Land Project Fellow. Suzanne is widely published. She is a certified Amherst Writers & Artists affiliate workshop leader. Please visit her website: <https://www.expressive-arts.com>